

Posted December 04, 2011
By John Davidson

Animal tracks - Putney, Inc., a pet pharmaceutical company focused on development and sale of generic prescription medicines for pets, is supporting Harrison Memorial Animal Hospital in Denver with an ongoing donation of its FDA-approved carprofen caplets. Carprofen is used to control post-operative pain from certain surgeries in dogs as well as to relieve pain and inflammation associated with osteoarthritis in dogs .

<http://blogs.denverpost.com/fetch/2011/12/04/canine-cancer-research-in-colorado-offers-hope-for-cure-in-humans/5000/>